

Warsaw-Beijing Seminar on reducing chemical threats

26th November 2015

Office of Technical Inspection: Ul. Szczęśliwicka 34

9.00 Welcome by Ambassador Krzysztof Paturej – President of the International Centre for Chemical Safety and Security (ICCSS) in Warsaw

Welcome on behalf of HE Min Mieczysław Borowski, Head of Office of Technical Inspection

Opening remarks by Mr. YE Xiangdong, Counsellor for Science and Technology, Ph.D., Embassy of the People's Republic of China in the Republic of Poland

Keynote statement by Amb. Tadeusz Chomicki, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Poland: "China's and Poland's policies and practices to enhance international security in the areas of chemical, biological, radiological and nuclear areas (CBRN)"

Keynote statement by Mr. Li Runsheng, Vice-Chair of the China Petroleum & Chemical Industry Federation: "Chemical Safety and Security in China: Present Situation, Challenges & Cooperation Opportunities"

Keynote statement by Dr. Tomasz Zieliński, President of Board, Polish Chamber of Chemical Industry: "Developing the Poland's specialty in chemical safety and security - opening new opportunities and areas for the development of innovation and export-orientation of the Polish economy"

10.15 – 10.30 Coffee break

Dr. Andrzej Kozak, Counselor to Head of Office of Technical Inspection: "Increasing the level of technical safety in Poland through modern, competent and impartial execution of research and evaluation and improvement of technical culture"

Dr. Andrzej Jagusiewicz: Director for eco-safety and international relations, ICCSS: "ICCSS leadership in the development of integrated approach to chemical and ecological safety and security - promoting integrated impact assessment"

Mrs. Malgorzata Rog-Giacosa, Head of Marketing Projects and Analysis, Targi Kielce: "Introduction to global summit on chemical safety and security and accompanying international fair – perspectives of cooperation with the Chinese partners"

Mr. Kacper Karpiński, ICCSS project manager: "Program to promote local awareness and responsibility in chemical safety and security - enabling local governments and actors to meet the safety and security challenges – cooperation with China"

11.30 Concluding session: Developing cooperation synergies with the Chinese partners to enhance chemical safety and security and environmental protection